摘要

• The Pre-Launch Lead will play a crucial role in developing and executing market access and launch strategies for our early-stage pipeline products. This position requires a strategic thinker with a proven track record in navigating complex healthcare environments and building foundation for successful product launches.

About the Role

About Us

We are one of a leading innovative medicines company committed to transforming patient outcomes through groundbreaking therapies. We are seeking a dynamic and experienced Pre-Launch Lead to join our team and drive the successful introduction of our upcoming pipeline products.

Major accountabilities:

- Collaborate with regional and global teams to develop comprehensive market access and pre-launch strategies for upcoming pipeline products
- Research and develop innovative alternative funding frameworks to address patient affordability challenges for both reimbursed and non-reimbursed medicines
- Lead and coordinate cross-functional teams to ensure alignment on pre-launch strategies
- Navigate regulatory environments and accelerate market access through creative, out-of-the-box thinking
- Conduct market research and analysis to inform strategic decision-making
- Identify market insights and opportunities through customer interactions.

Qualifications

- Minimum 10 years of experience in the biopharma industry or consulting within the healthcare practice
- Proven track record in soft-influencing and co-creation capabilities
- Demonstrated ability to think innovatively and develop creative solutions to complex challenges
- Excellent English communication skills, both written and verbal
- Strong project management abilities
- In-depth understanding of evolving dynamics in market access, regulatory environments, and healthcare systems
- Advanced degree in a relevant field (e.g., MBA, PharmD, MD) is preferred but not mandatory
- Demonstrates accountability in commercial forecasting.

What We Offer

- Opportunity to work on cutting-edge therapies that make a real difference in patients' lives
 - Dynamic and collaborative work environment
 - Competitive compensation and benefits package
 - Career growth and development opportunities

Reporting Structure

- This position reports directly to the Country President, offering high visibility and the opportunity to make a significant impact on the organization's success.
- Interested candidates who meet the above qualifications are encouraged to submit their resume and cover letter. We are an equal opportunity employer and value diversity at our company.
